Policy Review

The full policy can be found on the district website under School Board – District Policies. Search for IIBGA-AR or “Electronic Communications System.”

General Use Prohibitions/Guidelines/Etiquette

Operation of the district’s system relies upon the proper conduct and appropriate use of system users. Students, staff and others granted system and equipment access are responsible for adhering to the following prohibitions and guidelines which require legal, ethical and efficient utilization of the district’s system.

1. Prohibitions

The following conduct is strictly prohibited:

- a. Attempts to use the district’s system for:
 - (1) Unauthorized solicitation of funds;
 - (2) Distribution of chain letters;
 - (3) Unauthorized sale or purchase of merchandise and services;
 - (4) Collection of signatures;
 - (5) Membership drives;
 - (6) Transmission of any materials regarding political campaigns.
- b. Attempts to upload, download, use, reproduce or distribute information, data, software, or file share music, videos or other materials on the district’s system in violation of copyright law or applicable provisions of use or license agreements;
- c. Attempts to degrade, disrupt or vandalize the district’s equipment, software, materials or data or those of any other user of the district’s system or any of the agencies or other networks connected to the district’s system;
- d. Attempts to evade, change or exceed resource quotas or disk usage quotas;
- e. Attempts to send, intentionally access or download any text file or picture or engage in any communication that includes material which may be interpreted as:
 - (1) Harmful to minors;
 - (2) Obscene or child pornography as defined by law or indecent, vulgar, profane or lewd as determined by the district;
 - (3) A product or service not permitted to minors by law;
 - (4) Harassment, intimidation, menacing, threatening or constitutes insulting or fighting words, the very expression of which injures or harasses others;
 - (5) A likelihood that, either because of its content or the manner of distribution, it will cause a material or substantial disruption of the proper and orderly operation of the school or school activity;

- (6) Defamatory, libelous, reckless or maliciously false, potentially giving rise to civil liability, constituting or promoting discrimination, a criminal offense or otherwise violates any law, rule, regulation, Board policy and/or administrative regulation.
- f. Attempts to gain unauthorized access to any service via the district's system which has a cost involved or attempts to incur other types of costs without specific approval. The user accessing such services will be responsible for these costs;
- g. Attempts to post or publish personal student contact information unless authorized by the system coordinator or teacher and consistent with applicable Board policy pertaining to student directory information and personally identifiable information. Personal contact information includes photograph, age, home, school, work or e-mail addresses or phone numbers or other unauthorized disclosure, use and dissemination of personal information regarding students;
- h. Attempts to arrange student meetings with anyone on the district's system, unless authorized by the system coordinator or teacher and with prior parent approval;
- i. Attempts to use the district's name in external communication forums such as chat rooms without prior district authorization;
- j. Attempts to use another individual's account name or password, failure to provide the district with individual passwords or to access restricted information, resources or networks to which the user has not been given access.

2. Guidelines/Etiquette

System and equipment users will:

- a. Adhere to the same standards for communicating online that are expected in the classroom and consistent with Board policy and administrative regulations;
- b. Respect other people's time and cyberspace. Use real-time conference features such as talk/chat/Internet relay chat only as approved by the supervising teacher or system coordinator. Avoid downloading excessively large files. Remain on the system long enough to get needed information then exit the system. Act as though every byte sent costs somebody time and money, because it does;
- c. Take pride in communications. Check spelling and grammar;
- d. Respect the privacy of others. Do not read the mail or files of others without their permission;
- e. Cite all quotes, references and sources;
- f. Adhere to guidelines for managing and composing effective e-mail messages:
 - (1) One subject per message – avoid covering various issues in a single e-mail message;
 - (2) Use a descriptive heading;
 - (3) Be concise – keep message short and to the point;
 - (4) Write short sentences;
 - (5) Use bulleted lists to break up complicated text;
 - (6) Conclude message with actions required and target dates;
 - (7) Remove e-mail in accordance with established guidelines;

- (8) Remember, there is no expected right to privacy when using e-mail. Others may read or access mail;
- (9) Always sign messages;
- (10) Always acknowledge receipt of a document or file.
- g. Protect password confidentiality. Passwords are the property of the district and are not to be shared with others. No system user may use a password on the district's computers, e-mail system or Internet access which is unknown to the district;
- h. Communicate only with such users and/or sites as may be authorized by the district;
- i. Be forgiving of the mistakes of others and share your knowledge. Practice good mentoring techniques;
- j. Report violations of the district's policy and administrative regulation or security problems to the supervising teacher, system coordinator or administrator, as appropriate.

Complaints

Complaints regarding use of the district's Electronic Communications System may be made to the teacher, principal, employee's supervisor or system coordinator. The district's established complaint procedure will be used for complaints concerning violations of the district's Electronic Communications System policy and/or administrative regulation. See Board policy KL - Public Complaints.

Violations/Consequences

1. Students
 - a. Students who violate general system user prohibitions shall be subject to discipline up to and including expulsion and/or revocation of district system access up to and including permanent loss of privileges.
 - b. Violations of law will be reported to law enforcement officials and may result in criminal or civil sanctions.
 - c. Disciplinary action may be appealed by parents, students and/or a representative in accordance with established district procedures.
